

Building Surveyor Position at Godfrey Payton Chartered Surveyors, Warwick

Due to their continued growth, Godfrey Payton Chartered Surveyors have a vacancy for a Building Surveyor. The successful candidate will work on a wide range of projects and professional services in the education, residential and commercial sectors. The role also has potential to assist our Property Management department particularly in relation to building works to rural property

The role will be based in the Warwick Office (25 High Street, Warwick, CV34 4BB) under the direct supervision of a Partner.

We will consider Placement Students, Graduates and Qualified Members

Building Surveyor Position Overview

- Placement / Graduate / Recently Qualified Building surveyor to join a well-established Property Consultancy
- A diverse project experience including; education, residential and commercial property
- Assisting with; Design & Specification writing, Tendering & Procurement, Contract Administration and Project Management, CDM/Principal Designer.
- Liaising with Clients
- Developing business with new and existing Clients.
- Commitment to enrol on Assessment of Professional Competence (APC) Building Surveying pathway to become a chartered member of Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyor (RICS).
- Opportunity for Career Progression
- A Friendly, and collaborative working environment

Building Surveyor Position Requirements

- Degree educated; Building Surveying (RICS Accredited Course) or equivalent experience
- Commitment to become chartered member of RICS
- Some industry experience (preferrable)
- A confident communicator
- Be well presented and confident to be Client facing
- Have a self-starter attitude
- Full driving licence & car owner as travel within Warwickshire and the Midlands will be required as part of the role

Building Surveyor Position Remuneration

- Competitive salary (dependent on experience)
- APC application fees paid
- Professional Membership fees paid
- Continuing Professional Development course fees paid.
- 25 days holiday + bank holidays
- Pension scheme
- Business miles expense
- Office parking space

GODFREY-PAYTON
CHARTERED SURVEYORS

About Godfrey Payton Chartered Surveyors

Godfrey Payton is an independent Partnership of Chartered Surveyors (www.godfrey-payton.co.uk). The business is long established with a strong and diverse Client base of Property Owners and Tenants being; Private Individuals, Family Trusts, Charitable Institutions, Corporate Businesses and Local Authorities. Godfrey Payton offers a range of surveying services to Clients and has a growing demand for Building Surveying. Other services include; Property Management and Client Accounting, Valuation, Planning and Development, Agency and Other Professional Advice including Compulsory Purchase and Landlord and Tenant.

Application

Interested candidates can make an appointment for an informal and confidential telephone conversation with Tom Picking via 01926 492 511.

To apply candidates should send a cover letter and CV via email to recruitment@godfrey-payton.co.uk before the closing date of 11th February 2022

Direct applications only. Candidates introduced by Recruitment Consultancies will not be considered and Recruitment Fees will not be paid.